

Tim Storrier

Tim Storrier

B. 1949 • Australia

Renowned for his mysterious, poignant landscapes that capture the melancholy vastness of the Australian outback, Tim Storrier's work has been exhibited widely in Australia, as well as Japan, Hong Kong, Singapore, New York and London.

Storrier won the Sulman Prize in 1968 at age 19 – the youngest artist ever to receive the prestigious award – and again in 1984. His work has been collected by all major Australian art museums and is included in the collection of the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York, the National Gallery of Australia and the Art Gallery of New South Wales among others. In 1994, he was awarded an Order of Australia (AM) for services to art.

Born in Sydney in 1949, Storrier studied at the National Art School in East Sydney and now lives and works in Bathurst.
